

Enrichment Activities 2

(Units 4 and 5)

The Cow

Robert Louis Stevenson

The friendly cow all red and white,
I love with all my heart:
She gives me cream with all her might,
To eat with apple-tart.

She wanders lowing here and there,
And yet she cannot stray,
All in the pleasant open air,
The pleasant light of day;

And blown by all the winds that pass
And wet with all the showers,
She walks among the meadow grass
And eats the meadow flowers.

lowing stray

making a deep, long sound (here) go where the cow wants, away from the place where she should be

Reading

Underline the right options to complete these sentences. Read the poem on your own to find out the correct answers. Check your answers.

- The word 'white' rhymes with the word
a. heart. b. that. c. might.
- She wanders among the meadow grass eating the meadow
a. flowers. b. grass. c. showers.
- The cow wanders here and there, but she cannot
a. make a sound. b. stray. c. eat the grass.

4. The narrator likes to eat
a. flowers. b. apple-tart with cream. c. cake.
5. The first line of each stanza of this poem rhymes with the
a. second line. b. third line. c. fourth line.

Listening

Listen to the steps you need to follow to make mango shake. Now, look at the sentences given here and arrange them in the right order. Show your answer to your teacher to find out if you have got the sequence correct. 2T PS

- Add the powdered sugar as per your taste.
- Keep the pulp in a bowl and set it aside.
- Mix well.
- Pour it into glasses and serve.
- Put the mango pulp in it.
- Put two cups of milk and two cups of cold water in the juicer.
- Take two ripe mangoes and scoop them out.
- Use a grinder to make powdered sugar.
- You can also add a little bit of vanilla essence if you please.
- Your mango shake is ready.

Speaking

Read the conversation between Molly and Mike about the eating habits of their pets. Work in pairs and role play their conversation.

Molly: Hello, Mike. I heard you have a new pet. Is it a dog?

Mike: Yes, Molly. It is a dog. I call him Tommy. How is your cat?

Molly: Oh, she is fine. Snowball loves to eat sugar cubes.

Mike: Sugar cubes? And what about fish? Tommy likes to eat cornflakes with milk!

Molly: Snowball likes fish, but she likes sugar cubes more than fish. Cornflakes, sugar cubes...our pets sure do have strange tastes!

Mike: Come over to my house on Sunday. Snowball and Tommy can also meet each other then. Let's see how they get along!

Projects

Find the names of five domestic animals and paste their pictures in the boxes given below. Write how each animal helps us in the circles connected to each box.

