

Chapter 2: Pronoun

Definition

A pronoun is a word used in place of a noun. Pronouns help us avoid repetition and make sentences smoother.

Types of Pronouns and Their Usage

Personal Pronoun

Used to refer to a person or thing directly. They change form according to person, number, and gender.

Examples: Examples: I, we, you, he, she, it, they

Possessive Pronoun

Shows ownership or possession. These pronouns stand alone and are not followed by nouns.

Examples: Examples: mine, ours, yours, his, hers

Reflexive Pronoun

Used when the subject and object of a sentence are the same.

Examples: Examples: myself, yourself, himself

Demonstrative Pronoun

Used to point out specific persons or things.

Examples: Examples: this, that, these, those

Relative Pronoun

Introduces a relative clause and relates it to a noun mentioned earlier.

Examples: Examples: who, whom, whose, which, that

Interrogative Pronoun

Used to ask questions.

Examples: Examples: who, what, which, whom

Indefinite Pronoun

Refers to people or things in a general way.

Examples: Examples: someone, anyone, everyone, many
